

THE LODGE
at WAH
PALAMPUR

The Lodge at Wah is a boutique home stay set on an ancestral tea garden, the Wah Tea Estate, owned by the Prakash family. The tea estate is spread over 526 acres and is approximately 15 minutes away from Palampur town. The property consists of three mud cottages surrounded by tea bushes and a large lawn with a magnificent view of the Dhauladhar range on a clear day.

CONVENIENT LOCATION

- Daily flights from New Delhi to Dharamshala Airport (operated by Spicejet and Air India)
- The Lodge is one hour away from the Airport
- One hour from Dharamshala (famous for being the headquarters of the Dalai Lama)
- 1.5 hours from McLeodgunj (the home of the Dalai Lama and the Tibetans in exile)
- 45 minutes from the world famous paragliding site of Bir-Billing
- Five hours from Amritsar and Chandigarh

SERVICES & FACILITIES

- Customized meals based on guest preferences
- Organic vegetable and herb garden growing 75% of the ingredients for the meals
- Bonfire upon request
- Outdoor cooking unit for traditional wood-fire cooking
- Wood-fired pizza oven
- Outdoor badminton court
- Curated library of books
- Wide range of indoor board games

ACTIVITIES

- Tea Tour and Tasting with the owners
- Nature walk through the estate
- Cooking demo in the outdoor cooking unit
- Picnic within the tea estate
- Para-gliding (additional)
- Jeep Safari to the top of the mountain (additional)
- Andretta Pottery (additional)

ROOMS & ACCOMODATION

- 6 bedrooms made of 100% eco friendly materials such as mud, slate and recycled wood
- Local craftsmanship and materials in traditional Kangra architecture
- Pine and Cedar wood flooring and furnishing
- Artisanally woven curtains
- Daily Housekeeping Service
- Individually controlled all-weather air-conditioning unit
- Tea and coffee making facilities
- Spacious bathrooms with shower units

